No Improvement In Agricultural College Strike Situation

CAWNPORE, Dec. 9.—The strike situation in the Government Agricultural College is showing no sign of improvement. Though the institution has been closed by the authorities indefinitely, the picketing of the Principal's bungalow and office by the students continues.

Pandit Bal Krishna Sharma, M.L.A. (Central) and Dr. Jawaharlal Rohatgi, a prominent Congress worker, have sent an urgent telegram to the Director of Agriculture, U.P., requesting him to restore the College Union.

In a statement issued in this connection they say the demands of the students are very reasonable and simple and there should be no difficulty for the authorities to accept the same.

In their telegram to the Director of Agriculture, they have also requested him not to victimize any student for participating in this agitation.

The General Secretary of the Cawnpore Students' Congress in a statement to the Press says that in spite of the Congress Committee's intervention the situation in the local Agricultural College is deteriorating. He feels that the demand of the students for the restoration of the College Union is legitimate and should be conceded immediately. The matter has been referred to the Provincial Students' Congress for advice.

A meeting of the workers of the Cawnpore Students' Union was also held when a resolution supporting the demands of the Agricultural College students and assuring them of full support was unanimously adopted.—A.P.I.

GENUINE AYURVEDIC HAIR OIL

"Due to war time inflation various kinds of business and industrial enterprises have cropped-up in this country and special encouragement has been found in the manufacture of hair oil and other toilet products. But one thing is to be noticed that most of these houses are lacking in experienced and expert hands. This has given rise to doubts as to the genuineness of the products of these companies. By exaggerated publicity one can befool the public and thereby push up his sale and can earn money but such mean practices are most harmful to the interest of the country at large.

To prepare a hair oil beneficial to brain and towards the growth of hair is really a very difficult task. The preparation of real and genuine hair oil does not mean merely colouring and admixture of strong scented ingredients. Hair oils prepared on the above way are injurious both to brain and hair. Ayurvedic Hair Oil is the best tonic for hair and brain but its formula requires careful observation and experiments. There is no dearth of riches in the rich store-house of Ayurveda, but it requires years' researches and perseverance (Sadhana) to acquire those riches. The name of Vesaj-Bisarad Nagendra Nath Sastri deserves a special mention in this respect. It was he who after years' experiments and researches enriched his "Himkalyan" Hair Oil with all Ayurvedic ingredients beneficial to hair and brain according to the stricture of the Sastras, long before. The formula invented by late Kaviraj Siromani Syamadas Bachaspati after 50 years' strenuous labour for preparation of hair oil rich in Ayurvedic ingredients was just the same as that of Nagendranath's "Himkalyan." Nagendranath endeared himself to the late Syamadas Vachaspati for this noble work. As a reward of this wonderful research carried out by Nagendranath, the well-known Kavirajas and Pandits of Calcutta assembled at the Silver Jubilee of the Himkalyan Works in August 1944, conferred the titles of "Vesaj-Bisarad" and "Sastri" on him. This is an incontestable testimony to the quality and immense popularity of "Himkalyan" oil. WE EMPHATICALLY CERTIFY THAT "HIMKALYAN" IS UNDOUBTEDLY THE ONLY PURE AND GENUINE AYURVEDIC HAIR OIL.
